Extended E-Learning

Important information about continuing your academic progress during an extended closure.

Overview

We are paying close attention to developments related to COVID-19 (coronavirus), and it is possible we will need to transition to E-Learning for a duration.

DON'T WORRY, WE HAVE A PLAN!

You are used to E-Learning days. There will be some similarities and some differences with our extended E-Learning plan.

Be sure to pay careful attention to the information on the following slides and ASK A LOT OF QUESTIONS.

- ❑ E-Learning school days will follow the normal A/B schedule.
- ❑ Teachers will update each of their classes' Haiku pages by 10:00 a.m. each day with a detailed agenda and instructions for completing the day's assignments.

All Haiku pages can be found on the Advising Haiku Page:

Your first step each day will be to click on the attendance link at the top of the Haiku List Page:

The screenshot shows the ICS Advisory website interface. At the top left is the ICS Advisory logo, a stylized 'I' inside a square. To its right is the text 'ICS Advisory'. Below the logo is a navigation bar with 'Pages', 'Calendar', 'Messages', and 'Activities' (with a dropdown arrow). A left sidebar contains a list of links: 'Advising Team', 'HHS Announcements', 'ICS 2019-2020 Academic Calendar', 'Scheduling 2020-2021', 'HHS Haiku Links', 'HHS Office Hour Schedule', 'RHS Haiku Links', 'RHS Office Hour Schedule', 'ICS Freshman Advisory Agenda 2019-2020', 'ICS Sophomore Advisory Agenda 2019-2020', and 'ICS Junior Advisory Agenda 2019-2020'. The main content area has a white header 'RHS Haiku Links'. Below this is a red circle highlighting a white box containing the text 'E-Learning Attendance' and 'Sample ICS E-Learning Attendance Link: Click Here'. Below the red circle is another white box with the heading 'RHS Haiku Links' and the text: 'This is a one stop shop for all Riverside Haiku pages. The teacher names are listed in alphabetical order and the classes they teach are listed under their name. Click on the GOLD class name to be taken to your class Haiku site. Links will continue to be added and updated throughout the school year.' At the bottom of this box, under the heading 'Acosta', are the links 'English 10' and 'Reading and Composition'. Under the heading 'Arnold', are the links 'PE' and 'Health'.

Your teacher may use tools like Google Forms for you to respond to questions - kind of like bell work and exit tickets. This is why you need to know your school email address!

Look for videos your teacher may have posted. Watch and re-watch if you have questions!

Have any questions?

E-Learning: Your Responsibilities

- ❑ Students will visit the appropriate Haiku pages every school day.
- ❑ Students will complete all assigned tasks for that day; lesson activities for each class will total a minimum of 45 minutes.
- ❑ Completing the assigned tasks will also serve as attendance for that class.
- ❑ No assignments or activities will require a printer.
- ❑ All Extended E-Learning videos and resources can be accessed on any device: laptops, tablets, desktops, and phones.

❑ Ask your teachers questions!

- ❑ Teachers will hold online Office Hours via Google Meet - times for O.H. will be posted on teachers' Haiku pages, as well as on the Advising Haiku Page and school website.
- ❑ Teachers will be checking email regularly throughout the school day.
 - ❑ Remember, your email can be accessed through gmail.com
 - ❑ Your email is firstname.lastname@riversidehighschool.org or firstname.lastname@herronhighschool.org
 - ❑ If you don't know your password, email helpdesk@riversidehighschool.org or helpdesk@herronhighschool.org

Final Takeaways

- ❑ Go to Haiku for lessons each day.
- ❑ Click the link and be counted in attendance on Haiku each day.
- ❑ Complete all E-Learning work.
- ❑ Reach out to teachers with questions.
- ❑ We will help you problem solve as issues arise!
